ARTIST AND ART BLOGGER

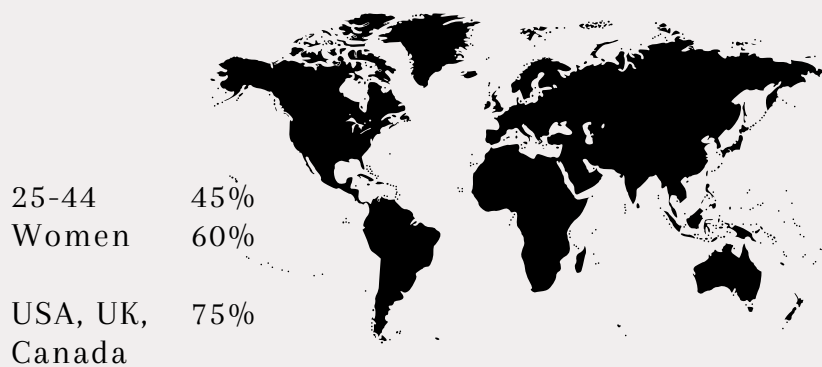

After working in marketing as CMO and leading ads manager I found myself burnt out. I didn't want to lose all my marketing skills and decided to combine them with my whole-life hobby - art & crafts. I started a painting blog that grew successful thanks to my SEO and content strategies.

The blog: acrylicpaintingschool.com

Categories: acrylic painting, pouring, art supplies, gouache, crafts, epoxy, learning painting basics.
